Travel budgets tight? Travel restrictions? Still want to participate?

The Midwest Conference on Library and Information Services for Transportation is offering an opportunity to participate via video conferencing.

From your remote site, you will be able to participate in the general sessions of the conference for both August 15th and 16th. In addition, you may also participate in one of the four breakout sessions planned for the late afternoon of August 15, 2002 by conference call access. (see the Preliminary Program for schedule details).

If you register to participate via a remote site, staff at the Midwest Regional University Transportation Center will contact you directly to obtain contact information and provide details on how to access the conference from your remote site.

To register complete the reverse side of this insert and send it in today.

Registration Fee $195/site
